

My Heart's Diet

The darkness overcomes the day light
My heart sinks as having not your sight

The stormy scene of my village persuades me to fright
I always miss the occasion happen with you over night

Console my soul by tapping your hand in hairs
Grant me your sweet sight and remove all fears

No more absence, I need presence; don't late
Without you, life seems to be tough I can't wait

I cannot wait hearing the patter of your feet
Because it has been ages since we last meet

The few hours are worthy I spent with you
Than the thousand hours I spend without you

Your arrival will cause great happiness for me
God has blessed his special blessings upon me

Your laugh is the cutest thing I've ever found
I'm connected with you through soul's bound

The stars will fall and the moon may too
I can't go a day without thinking about you

You are the first thing I think of every morning
Stays on my mind every night the same feeling

It's so hard to say it but I have been here before
Now, I surrender up my heart and swap it for your

Eating, drinking and sleeping are all lost
Nourishing on your beauty is my sole diet
